Army Birthday Celebration
3 p.m., Tuesday, June 14, 2016
WSMR Museum

White Sands Missile Range, N.M., Jun. 13, 2016 – On June 14, the United States Army celebrates 241 years. Please help us celebrate the competence, character and commitment of our Soldiers, civilians and their families, who each contribute honorably in service to the nation.

Today's Army is one of the most integrated and diverse major institutions in American history. That's why the moniker of "America's Army" is so very appropriate. As an all-volunteer force, we have recruits from all walks of life and across the United States, its territories and worldwide, who answer the nation's call to duty. This diversity serves to strengthen the Army as an institution.

Media representatives interested in covering WSMR's 241st Army Birthday Celebration June 14 at 3 p.m. at the WSMR Museum should call the WSMR Public Affairs Office by 10 a.m. June 14 to register at 575-678-1134.
